

The Chinese largely ended their epidemic two months after about three hundred cases. Using this as a model, I suspect without exceptional intervention, [1] the pandemic will not be over until June.

bc

[1] discovery of antivirals, and vaccine Notice the majority of countries' graphs show no slowing of new cases and deaths.